

THE HAMILTON ACADEMY

English
Class VI I

I. Practice the format of a formal letter in your rough copy.

Format of a Formal Letter

II. Following the above format write a letter to your principal of your school on behalf of the students of your class requesting him or her to introduce personality development classes in the school.

Learn the following.

ONE WORD SUBSTITUTION

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|
| one who leaves his country to live elsewhere | emigrant |
| being all powerful | omnipotent |
| being present everywhere | omnipresent |
| belonging to all parts of the world | cosmopolitan |
| one who makes eloquent speeches | orator |
| all of one mind | unanimous |
| give tit for tat | retaliate |
| paper written by hand | manuscript |
| having no beginning or end to its existence | eternal |
| what is no longer in use | obsolete |
| speech made without preparation | extempore |
| belief accepted without question | dogma |
| plan, details or records of a journey | itinerary |
| life history of a person written by another | biography |
| a cluster of houses in a village | hamlet |
| an entertainer who performs difficult actions | acrobat |
| to examine one's own thoughts and feelings | introspection |
| a song embodying religious and sacred emotions | hymn |
| the study of human history and pre-history through the excavation of sites | archaeology |
| a list of items of the business to be transacted at a meeting | agenda |
| large scale departure of people | exodus |
| to send an unwanted person out of the country | deport |
| one who walks on a rope | funambulist |
| strong tendency for stealing articles | kleptomania |
| an associate in an office or institution | colleague |

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|
| one who cannot die | immortal |
| a child of unusual or remarkable talent | prodigy |
| causing death or disaster | fatal |
| a person who rules without consulting the opinion of others | autocrat |
| study of mankind | anthropology |
| study of statistics of birth, death, disease to show the state of community | demography |
| a person who can use both hands | ambidexter |
| a raised place on which an offering to God is made | altar |
| a person who investigates crime | sleuth |
| a person who compiles dictionary | lexicographer |
| something that lasts only for a day / short lived | ephemeral |
| design made by putting together coloured stones / chips | mosaic |
| a bundle of hay | truss |
| place where bees are kept | apiary |
| a person with a beautiful and elegant handwriting | calligrapher |
| image of a person in wood, stone | effigy |
| the power of reading the thoughts of others | telepathy |
| a person who is trained to travel in a spacecraft | astronaut |
| time after twilight and before night | dusk |
| to bring peace and end violence | pacify |
| animal living both in land and in water | amphibian |
| the concluding part of a speech | peroration |
| rules for formal behaviour among people | etiquette |
| film or lecture about travels | travelogue |
| a person who keeps money in a bank | depositor |